

Hannes Thiemann

Bio:

After his degree as geophysicist Hannes Thiemann joined the Deutsches Klimarechenzentrum (DKRZ) in 1991. After 25 years of experience in data management he is now the Deputy Department Head of the Data Management department.

His particular ambition is the area of long-term archiving. He is responsible for the World Data Centre for Climate (WDCC) at DKRZ, including its implementation, certification and operation.

He has been and is involved in many national and international projects, most current ones EUDAT and SeaDataCloud.