Makoto (Mak) Tsukakoshi

Bio:

Makoto (Mak) Tsukakoshi is Director of Information Systems Department at CEIST. He has been in charge of service and operation of JAMSTEC computing resources including Earth Simulator since 2013. After graduating University of Tokyo with Bachelor's degree, Mak started his career as a programmer of Fortran compiler at NEC Corporation. He had been in HPC and IT industry for long time in various positions in NEC such as Vice President of Global Business & HPC Marketing, and as Managing Director of NEC High Performance Computing Europe GmbH. He designed automatic vectorization for SX-1/2 supercomputer and later conducted HPC business strategy.